

JENNY'S

Magnus Peterson Horner

Boy

January 14 – February 19, 2022

These portraits are inspired by a young boy on the brink of adolescence. The boy is straddling between childhood and adulthood, between what he knows and does not know, between dark and light, as part of himself may become buried. These paintings show growth and change but they also explore the liminal space of the in-between. This turbulent time in everybody's life may – for some – never end, never getting the relief of being uncertain.

Magnus Peterson Horner (b. 1997, Oxford, England) lives and works in New York, NY. He attended Städelschule in Frankfurt, Germany from 2017-2018 and received his BFA from Cooper Union School of Fine Art in 2019. Recent exhibitions include Magnus Peterson Horner & McKinney, GandtX, Gandt, Queens, NY (2020).

Magnus Peterson Horner
Boy
January 14 – February 19, 2022

Clockwise from entrance:

Portrait of a Blonde Boy, 2021
Gouache on canvas
30 x 36 inches
MPH 106

Boy in Bowtie, 2021
Oil and pencil on canvas
25.5 x 32 inches
MPH 105

Mannequin and Boy, 2021
Oil and charcoal on canvas
28 x 36 inches
MPH 104

Impasto Boy, 2021
Oil on canvas
25.5 x 32 inches
MPH 102

Boy in Stripes, 2021
Gouache on canvas
28 x 36 inches
MPH 101

Older Boy (Nightmare), 2021
Oil on canvas
25.5 x 32 inches
MPH 103

Young Boy, 2021
Gouache and charcoal on canvas
22 x 28 inches
MPH 107

Double Boy, 2021
Oil and charcoal on canvas
38 x 30 inches
MPH 108